Your business, Our training, Greater possibilities

Business Managers need skills and knowledge to be competitive in the global marketplace - BUT

- Business Managers don't have time to sit in class rooms.
- Business Managers sleep in a different city every night.
- Business Managers want to focus on their organisation - not text books.
- Business Managers don't want to study what they already know.

That's why WideBay TAFE Executive programs cater for Business Managers with online, flexible delivery, fast track training, and recognition for existing skills and experience.

WideBay TAFE is a leader in delivering training to business and industry. Our training has been delivered across the nation and state in diverse areas including Retail, Maritime and Security. Training options for you could include on-site, online, via video-streaming or videoconferencing.

Some of the programs currently available are:

- Frontline Management
- Project Management
- Security and Risk Management
- Business and IT
- Diploma of Accounting

We can also customise training to suit your business needs.
